invitation of the «Turkish Journalists Association». This press conference was widely covered by the whole Turkish press and the Turkish TV-Radio network. The book was considered a major contribution to Greek-Turkish historiography. The Greek Ministry of Education has included this book as a compulsory reference to be taught in the last grade of the Greek Lycées and for the entry examinations to Universities. See the textbook: Themata neôterês kai sygchronês Historias apo tis pêges («Topics of Modern and Contemporary History from the Sources»), Athens, Ministry of Education, 1984 and subsequent editions. 50-page résumé in Turkish of the above book was published under the title: «20. Asirda Karsilastirmali Türk-Yunan Tarihi» (20th Century Turkish-Greek Comparative History), in Türk Dünyasi Arastirmalari Dergisi, vol. 2, no. 8, Istanbul, October 1980, pp. 97-144. A new Greek edition with an additional chapter and a supplementary introduction was published in Athens, by Hestia, in 1990, 357 pages, under a new cover and launched by the author at a Press Conference at the Foreign Press Association, in Athens, on the 18 December 1990.

A second edition, with changes, was published in Athens, Hestia, 1995, 364 pages, new cover.
- 8 - L'Empire ottoman -Paris, Presses universitaires de France, 1985, 128 pages. (Collection «Que Sais-je?», no. 2222). This book had an important impact in France (see for instance, Georges Corm, Le Moyen-Orient, Paris, Flammarion, 1993, who writes on p. 75 : «As for the Ottoman Empire, Dimitri Kitsikis has brilliantly defended, with many supporting facts, the thesis of a binational Greek-Turkish Empire», and J.-F. Drevet, Chypre, île extrême, Paris, Syros, 1991, p. 53). It also had an important impact in Turkey and was extensively used by the prime minister of Turkey himself, Turgut Özal, for the writing of his own book, La Turquie en Europe, Paris, Plon, 1988, 270 pages - See Prof. Ömer Bozkurt's 12 page review in Turkish, in Amme Idaresi Dergisi ("Journal of Public Administration"), vol. XXV (1), March 1992, pp. 185-196., also the review published in French, in Turcica, XVIII (1986) pp. 245-247. A second edition appeared in 1991 («12e mille»). A third edition, with changes, was published in 1994. Spanish translation : El Imperio otomano - Mexico, Fondo de Cultura Economica, 1989, 160 pages. Portuguese translation : O Império Otomano - Porto, Portugal, Rés Editora (Coleção Cultura Geral), 1996, 159 pages.
- 9 - Greek Synthetic Thought -San Francisco, Bhaktivedanta Institute, 1988 (A 12 page pamphlet).
- 10 - Historia tês Othômanikês Autokratorias, 1280-1924 - Athens, Hestia, 1988, 244 pages (In Greek). («History of the Ottoman Empire, 1280-1924»). About this book see, in particular, a lengthy first page article «Peri Othômanikês Autokratorias» in Ê Kathêmerinê, Athens, 18 December 1988 and Synaxê, January-March 1989, pp. 95-99. Also Byzantinos Domos, 4, 1990, (Athens) pp. 197-198. The book was launched in Athens, on December 15, 1988, in an author's press conference, at the invitation of the «Foreign Press Association» and was widely covered by the whole Greek press and the Greek TV-Radio network. On the 19 and 20 December 1988 this same book was launched in Cyprus, in the presence of the author. It became a best-seller and a second edition was published in February 1989, only two months after the first one. Third enlarged edition, entirely rewritten with many changes. New cover. Athens, Hestia, 1996, 316 pages.

- 11 - Hê tritê ideologia kai hê Orthodoxyia - Athens, Akritas, 1990, 358 pages. (In Greek). («The Third Ideology and Orthodoxy»). Third ideology means fascism. This book was launched in the presence of the author in Athens, on the 17 December 1990. See: Bishop Chrysostomos's review in Orthodox Tradition (Etna Calif.) vol. VIII (2), 1991 and Ch. Esaïas's review article, pp. 213-216 in Paradosê (Athens) April-June 1992. An enormous pressure was exerted on the publisher from certain religious and other circles to withdraw it from circulation. Akritas had to give in and destroy the remaining copies, promising not to reprint it.
- 12 - The Old Calendarists and the Rise of Religious Conservatism in Greece - Etna, California, Center for Traditionalist Orthodox Studies, 1995, 42 pages.
- 13 - Türk-Yunan İmparatorluğu. Arabölge Gerçeği Işığında Osmanlı Tarihine Bakış - İstanbul, İletişim, 1996 (1st and 2nd edition), 214 pages. (In Turkish). ("Turkish-Greek Empire. A Look at Ottoman History in the Light of the Intermediate Region Reality"). This book had two editions in 1996 and became a best seller, ranking 6th in sales of all books published in Turkey that year. It was hailed as outstanding by the Prime Minister of Turkey, Mesut Yılmaz, on March 31, 1996, in a special declaration to the Press. (See the full text of this statement in Nokta, İstanbul, March 31-April 6, 1996, p.45). IV - ARTICLES

Articles have been published in the best known scholarly journals of France, such as the Revue historique, Revue d'Histoire moderne et contemporaine, Revue d'Histoire de la Deuxième Guerre mondiale, Revue d'Histoire diplomatique, Revue française de Science politique, Turcica, CEMOTI : Cahiers d'Etudes sur la Méditerranée orientale et le monde turco-iranien, as well as in the Encyclopaedia Universalis.

Many of these articles have often been quoted and very favorably commented on by scholars in many countries. For instance, the articles dealing with the Press, have been extensively used in the 3rd volume (1871-1940) of L'Histoire générale de la Presse française, Paris, Presses Universitaires de France. (See pp. 498, 501, 503, 638). -The article «L'attitude des États-Unis à l'égard de la France de 1958 à 1960» (Revue française de Science politique, August 1966) was considered a key study for the understanding of Gaullism and was quoted many times in this sense in the important book by Edmond JOUVE, Le général de Gaulle et la construction de l'Europe.³ See also the place given to this article in Le Monde, Paris, March 9, 1976. -The article «La Grèce et le projet Briand d'Union européenne» (Revue d'Histoire moderne et contemporaine, July-Sept. 1965) has been the object of a praising article by E.L. Kushnir, a Soviet historian, in Voprosy Istorii, Moscow, 1966 (5), pp. 191-193, the leading scholarly journal of the USSR in the field of History under the title: «A Greek Historian on the Plan of the Creation of Paneuropa».

³ See section "articles in other languages" of this c.v., no. 13, for the importance given to this article in Germany.

The articles of a political character by D.K. which have appeared in Greece and Turkey are not included in the present c.v. The latter also does not include in this section articles about him that have appeared in the Greek, Turkish and Cypriot press.

XIV - HUMAN RIGHTS

(Extract from Prof. E.P. Dimitras's paper presented at the conference on Academic Freedom of Speech, Panteios University, Athens, 31 October 1992):

"A Greek professor at the University of Ottawa, specialist in Greek-Turkish History and a visionary of a Greek-Turkish reconciliation, Dimitri Kitsikis (incidentally a classmate of Duroselle) found many publishers for his studies in Greece, but not in Turkey. In Greece, though, he was not able to become a professor because of his views on Greek-Turkish relations that are not compatible with the prevailing ones among the majority of Greeks. It is noteworthy that, for nearly two decades, Professor Kitsikis has been teaching in Canada, as well as in Turkey where, two years ago, President Özal appointed him (unpaid) scientific advisor. In Greece, as well as in Turkey, Professor D. Kitsikis has been the target of attacks by academics and journalists : in Greece they considered him a suspect Turcophile and in Turkey a suspect Greek".
